CONGREGATION of the Sisters of Charity
of the INCARNATE WORD
HOUSTON, TEXAS

Ruah Spirituality
Center is a ministry of the Sisters of Charity

of the Incarnate Word, focuses primarily on promoting the re-creation of the human spirit. Our primary work is to plan for and welcome individuals and groups who seek spiritual renewal afforded by an environment of beauty, quiet and reverence for all life.

Individuals who seek a few hours of prayer, a day of prayer or a longer period of retreat are welcome. Groups who intend to give significant time to silent seeking and later sharing out of the silence are also welcome. (However, for an individual's or a group's first time in silence, we offer one day only, from morning until afternoon. For subsequent visits, an overnight can be considered.) The convent chapel, the grounds, and the places of quiet for listening and prayer are open to all those who desire to come. Our accommodations are simple single rooms in dormitory style with shared restroom facilities.

What Does Ruah Mean?

"Ruah cannot be translated by any single English word. It is a Hebrew word that sometimes indicates "breath of life force", "wind", "the movement of air" or "spirit". In Hebrew scripture "Ruah Elohim" is the creative wind of the Lord. We use circular shapes as symbols for Ruah Center. The circle was an ancient Christian symbol for God, community and the universe. Our circle is in motion, suggestive of T.S. Eliot's "still point in a turning world", the silent center being God and the circular motion being our turning around and focusing on our creative center. In the east, the circle is a symbol of enlightenment.

ADVENT RETREAT
DECEMBER 3-6, 2020
Thursday~12noon-Sunday~10:30am

We'll take a few days to contemplate the Incarnation of Jesus in history, his presence with us today, and the fulfillment of his final coming at the end of time. Enter into this sacred season by spending time with some of the great figures of faith found in our Advent scriptures. Amid the busy-ness of the season, put a few days aside for spiritually preparing yourself for the celebration of Christmas, and the gift of the Incarnation in your life.

Invitation to Silence

One important aspect of the mission of Ruah Center is to offer an environment of quiet and spaciousness to our retreatants and guests to enable them to enter the temples of their hearts and to develop attentiveness to the One Ruah who re-creates, heals and prepares us for more creative action. Therefore, we ask all who come to accept and appreciatively respond to our invitation to silence. We see this as a way in which you minister with us.

Prayer and Worship

Time and space for silent meditation are available. We provide several areas of “spiritual breathing space”. We have two group meeting rooms: Bethany for smaller groups (15 or fewer), and Emmaus, for larger groups up to 35. The Oratory is for personal quiet prayer. The Icon Room, where the Mystery of Incarnation is reflected in line, image, color and beauty, is for quiet mediation by those drawn into the Mystery this way. Lebh Shomea, Hebrew for “listening heart”, is our listening room providing space for sacred reading, journaling or listening to music. In Kairos you may pray with your own creative expression using art supplies, writing or movement. Visit the Labyrinth, our newest prayer space, located behind the Villa near the cemetery. The Villa Chapel is no longer used for daily Eucharist but is available for groups or individuals on retreat. (if a group wants to celebrate its own Mass, they must also make their own arrangements with a priest.)

Spiritual Direction

Spiritual direction concerns your relationship with God—observing God’s movement through the circumstances of your life, considering how to respond, and growing in trust that you are indeed a dwelling place for God’s Spirit.

Our directors are available while you are here on retreats or days of prayer, and/or for an ongoing committed direction relationship. We have a bilingual ministry to respond to those who are more comfortable speaking Spanish.

Labyrinth

The Labyrinth is an ancient symbol found across many cultures and around the world. A labyrinth's route is unicursal, that is, it has only a single path. It relates to illumination and the individual spiritual journey.

Taking a Labyrinth Prayer Walk represents a journey to our own deepest self-center and back out again into the world with broadened understanding of who we are. It combines one's sacred prayer and reflection on God's meandering purposeful path for your life.

Your life is a sacred journey. And it is about change, growth, discovery, movement, transformation, continuously expanding your vision of what is possible, stretching your soul, learning to see clearly and deeply, listening to your intuition, taking courageous challenges at every step along the way.

Feel free to come and walk the Labyrinth anytime during daylight hours. First sign in at the reception desk and get a guest badge.
